1.0. Uvod

1.1. Korišćeni programski jezici

Za izradu sajta su korišćeni sledeći programski i markup jezici: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, JSON, JQuery(vanilla box), AJAX, XML. Sajt je uradjen u Notepad++-u.

1.2. Opis funkcionalnosti

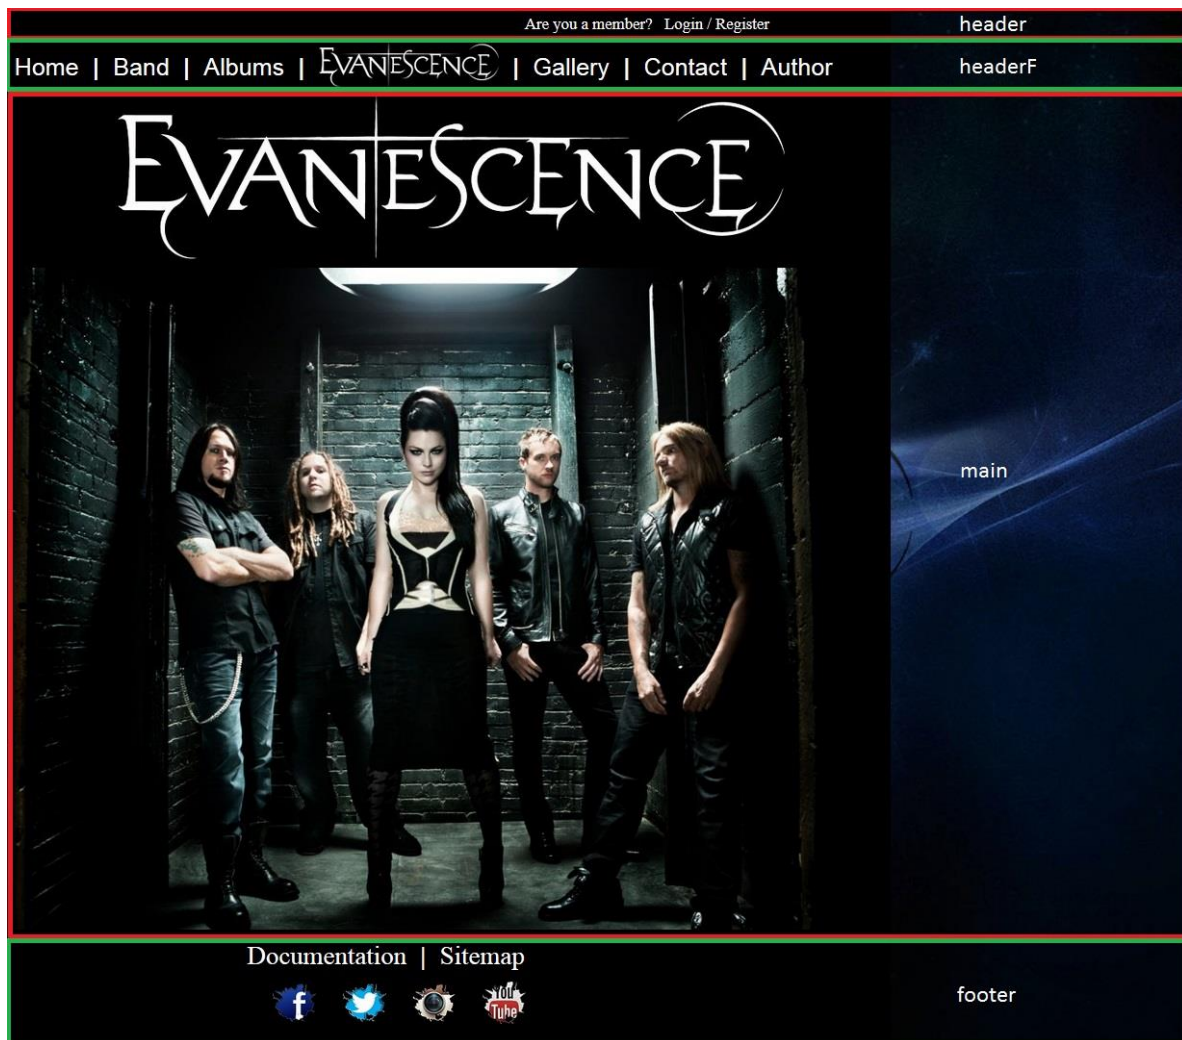

Sajt se sastoji iz stranica:

- Home Band Albums i Author (sadrzi sitemap) nisu programirani.
- Login sadrzi 2 tekst polja. Validacija se vrši pomoću regularnih izraza. Ako su podaci pogrešno uneti crvena zvezda postaje vidljiva. Kada su podaci pravilno uneti postaje zelena. Radjeno u JS-u.
- Register – vazi isto pravilo kao i za Login stranu stím što sadrzi dodatna polja, radio button-e i dinamičku drop down listu u vidu kalendara koja razlikuje prestupne godine. Radjeno u JS-u
- Gallery - slike se učitavaju pomoću JSON-a i AJAX-a. Slike se loaduju sa animacijom fadeIn. Prilikom prelaska misem preko slika se desava hover efekat što je uradjeno pomoću JQuery-ja. Prilikom klika na sliku u galeriji aktivira se JQuery plugin (vanilla box)
- Contact sadrzi anketu u vidu radio button-a koji nestaju kada se izabere radio button i isti potvrđi klikom na „Confirm“ nakon čega jedini vidljiv ostaje izabrana opcija – radjeno u JQuery-ju, slideUp. Ispod ankete korisnik može da napiše svoj komentar i svoje korisničko ime. U slučaju da korisnik želi da ostavi svoj komentar prvo mora da upiše svoje korisničko ime koje mora da ima minimalno 1 karakter i proverava se kroz regularan izraz i komentar od najmanje jednog karaktera. Komentar se zatim ispisuje ispod button-a „Send“. Radjeno sa JQuery-jem. Ispod se nalaze komentari koji se dinamički učitavaju iz JSON-a koji se nalazi u JS-u u vidu objekta (zakomentarisani delovi u kodu omogućavaju da se komentari učitaju iz eksternog JSON-a pomoću AJAX-a. Forma koja omogućava search opciju za komentare je takodje zakomentarisana u contact.html-u.).

It was first released in Poland on September 25, 2006, through Wind-up Records and subsequently in more than 20 other countries worldwide. Originally intended to be released in March 2006, the release date of The Open Door was changed due to guitarist Terry Bahamo's stroke, the loss of the band's former manager and Will Boyd's and Ben Moody's departure from the band. The album symbolizes a new beginning for the band, incorporating new elements in their old music such as gothic rock, symphonic rock and pop music as well as choirs on several songs. The writing process for the album took a period of over 15 months and the majority of the songs were written by Amy Lee and Terry Bahamo, while being produced by Dave Fortman.

The band started the writing process for the album in June 2009. The release of the album was changed several times: on February 22, 2010, the band entered the studio with producer Steve Lillywhite, but later they stopped recording the album with him because he "wasn't the right fit". During that time the album was scheduled for an August or September 2010 release, but Lee later announced that Evanescence had left the studio to write more material. On April 11, 2011, the band went back into the studio with a new producer, Nick Raskulinec. According to Lee, the band drew influences from Björk, Depeche Mode, Massive Attack, MGMT and Portishead in the album. <h3>

The Open Door (2006)

</h3>

<h4>

<cite>The Open Door</cite> is the second studio album by the American rock band Evanescence. It was first released in Poland on September 25, 2006, through Wind-up Records and subsequently in more than 20 other countries worldwide. Originally intended to be released in March 2006, the release date of The Open Door was changed due to guitarist Terry Balsamo's stroke, the loss of the band's former manager and Will Boyd's and Ben Moody's departure from the band. The album symbolizes a new beginning for the band, incorporating new elements in their old music such as gothic rock, symphonic rock and pop music as well as choirs on several songs. The writing process for the album took a period of over 18 months and the majority of the songs were written by Amy Lee and Terry Balsamo, while being produced by Dave Fortman.

Evanesence (2011)

</h3>

<h4>

<cite>Evanescence</cite> is the self-titled third studio album by American rock band Evanescence released on October 7, 2011, through Wind-up Records. The band started the writing process for the album in June 2009. The release of the album was changed several times; on February 22, 2010, the band entered the studio with producer Steve Lillywhite, but later they stopped recording the album with him because he "wasn't the right fit". During that time the album was scheduled for an August or September 2010 release, but Lee later announced that Evanescence had left the studio to write more material. On April 11, 2011, the band went back into the studio with a new producer, Nick Raskulinecz.

According to Lee, the band drew influences from Björk, Depeche Mode, Massive Attack, MGMT and Portishead in the album. The songs on Evanescence contain elements of gothic rock, nu-metal and hard rock as well as new electro elements.
